Michelle Khoury

CHILDREN'S ILLUSTRATOR & WATERCOLOUR ARTIST

I'm a UK-based illustrator with a background in graphic design, creating whimsical animal characters, playful storytelling and hand-painted watercolour illustrations for children's books, educational resources and creative products.

www.michellekhouryillustrates.com

michelle@michellekhouryillustrates.com

WELCOME LITTLE ONE

Noah John

22.05.XX

ONE WHOLE YEAR OF YOU

Felix

Happy 1st Birthday Little Snowflake

Life Cycle of a Butterfly

A butterfly goes through amazing changes as it grows!

Egg

A butterfly begins life as a tiny egg on a plant.

Caterpillar

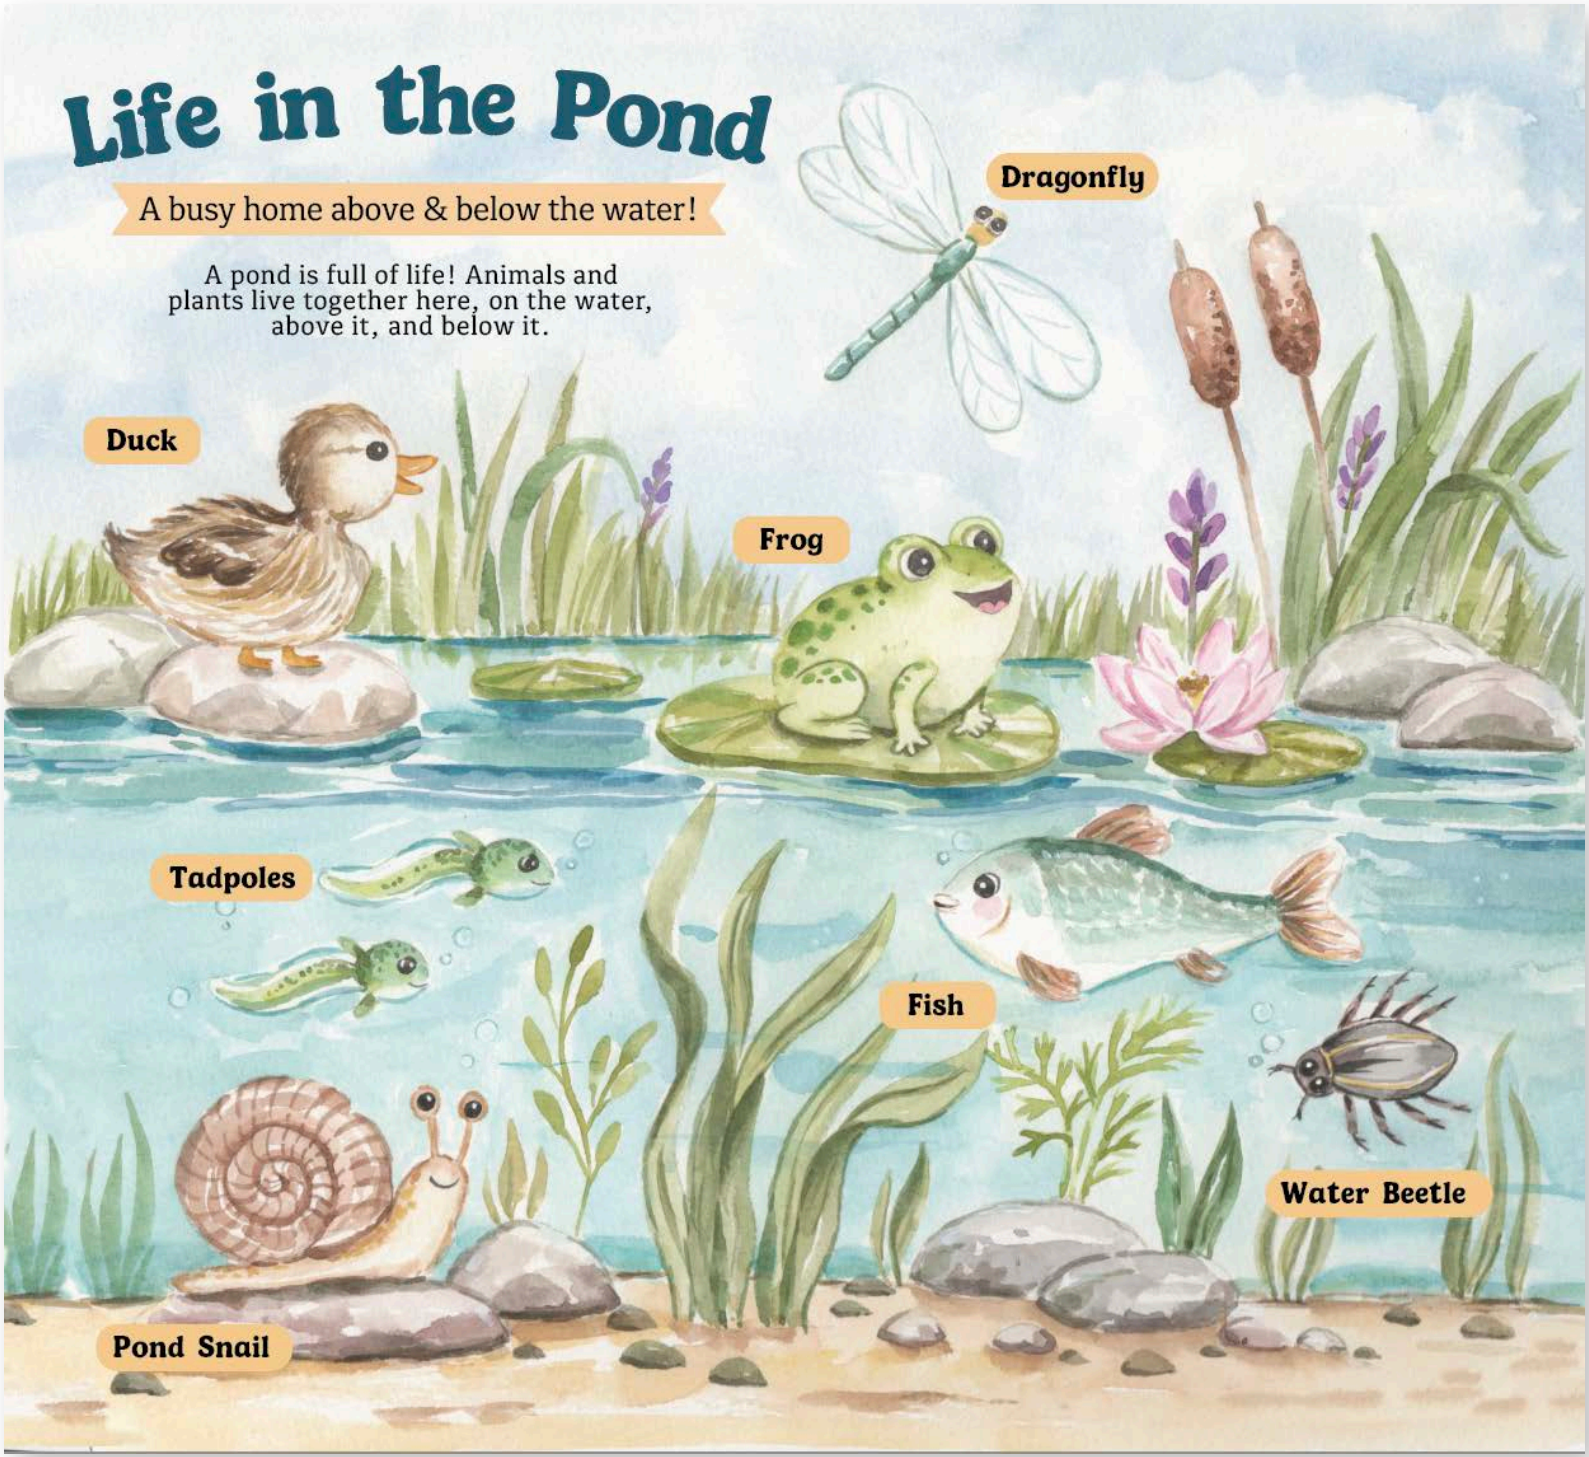
The egg hatches into a caterpillar. It eats lots of leaves and grows.

Chrysalis

The caterpillar changes into a chrysalis, where it grows into a butterfly.

Butterfly

A beautiful butterfly emerges It can fly, find flowers, and one day lay eggs to start the cycle again.



Life in the Pond
A busy home above & below the water!
A pond is full of life! Animals and plants live together here, on the water, above it, and below it.
Dragonfly
Duck
Frog
Tadpoles
Fish
Water Beetle
Pond Snail

Ancient Egypt

Ancient Egypt was a remarkable civilisation that grew along the Nile River. It was a world of great pyramids, powerful symbols, many gods and goddesses, special animals, and amazing treasures that still fascinate us today.

Ankh

Known as the key of life, the ankh was an ancient Egyptian symbol representing eternal life and immortality.

Scarab Beetles

Associated with the sun god Ra and divine transformation, the scarab beetle symbolized rebirth and protection.

The Pyramids

Built as monumental tombs for Pharaohs, the pyramids were engineered to guide their souls toward the afterlife.

Palm Tree

Providing food, shade, and building materials, date palms were essential to desert life and signified fertility and abundance.

People, Gods, and Treasures

Ancient Egypt was full of fascinating people, powerful gods, and special objects. Here are some of the most important ones.

Anubis

This is Anubis, the jackal-headed ancient Egyptian god associated with mummification, embalming, and guiding souls in the afterlife.

Falcon

Representing the sky god Horus, the ceremonial bird symbolized divine kingship, protection, and the royal power of the Pharaoh.

Eye of Horus

A famous protective amulet, the Eye of Horus represented healing, royal strength, and good health.

Hieroglyphic Tablet

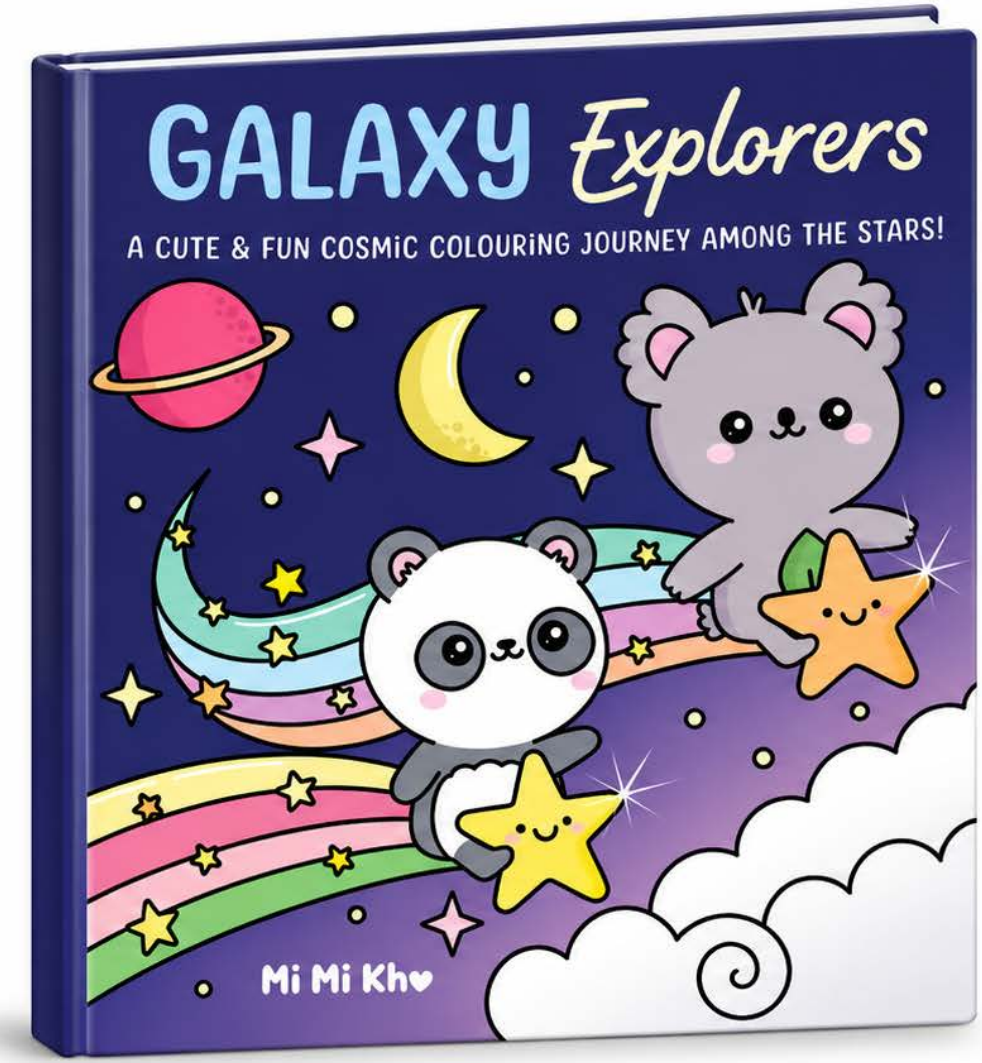
Hieroglyphs were a complex system of pictorial writing used for sacred inscriptions, official decrees, and historical records.

Egyptian Black Cat

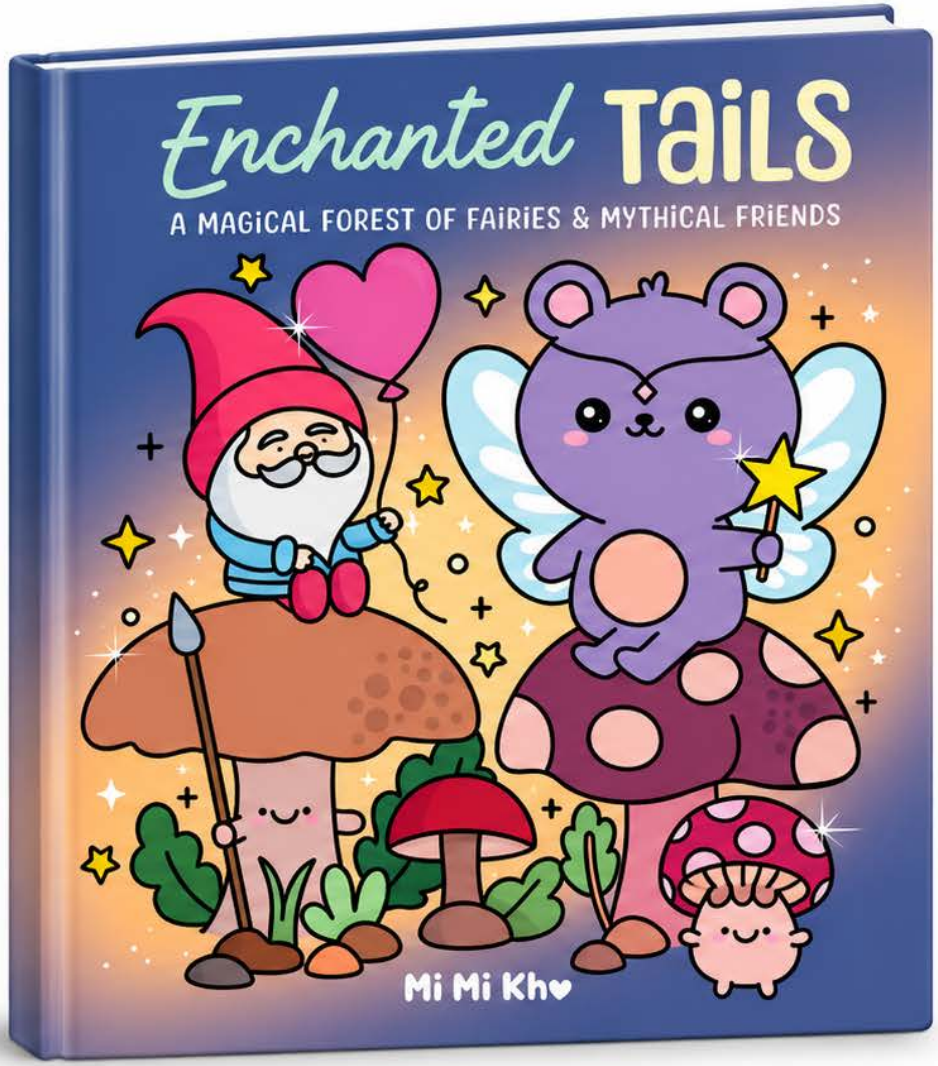
Highly revered in Egyptian society, black cats were associated with Bastet, the protective goddess of the home, fertility, and women.

Queen Nefertiti

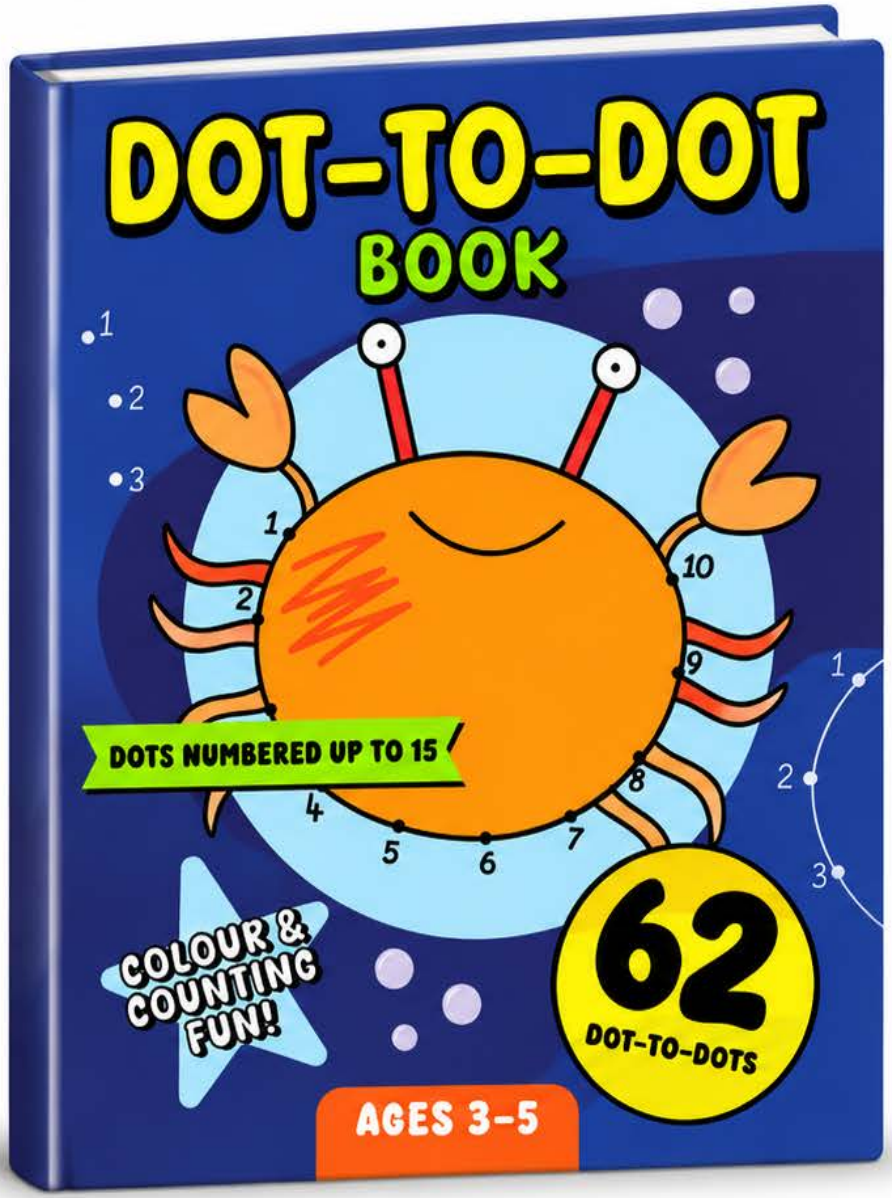
Famous for her iconic regal bust, Queen Nefertiti was a powerful ruler celebrated for her beauty and religious influence during the New Kingdom.



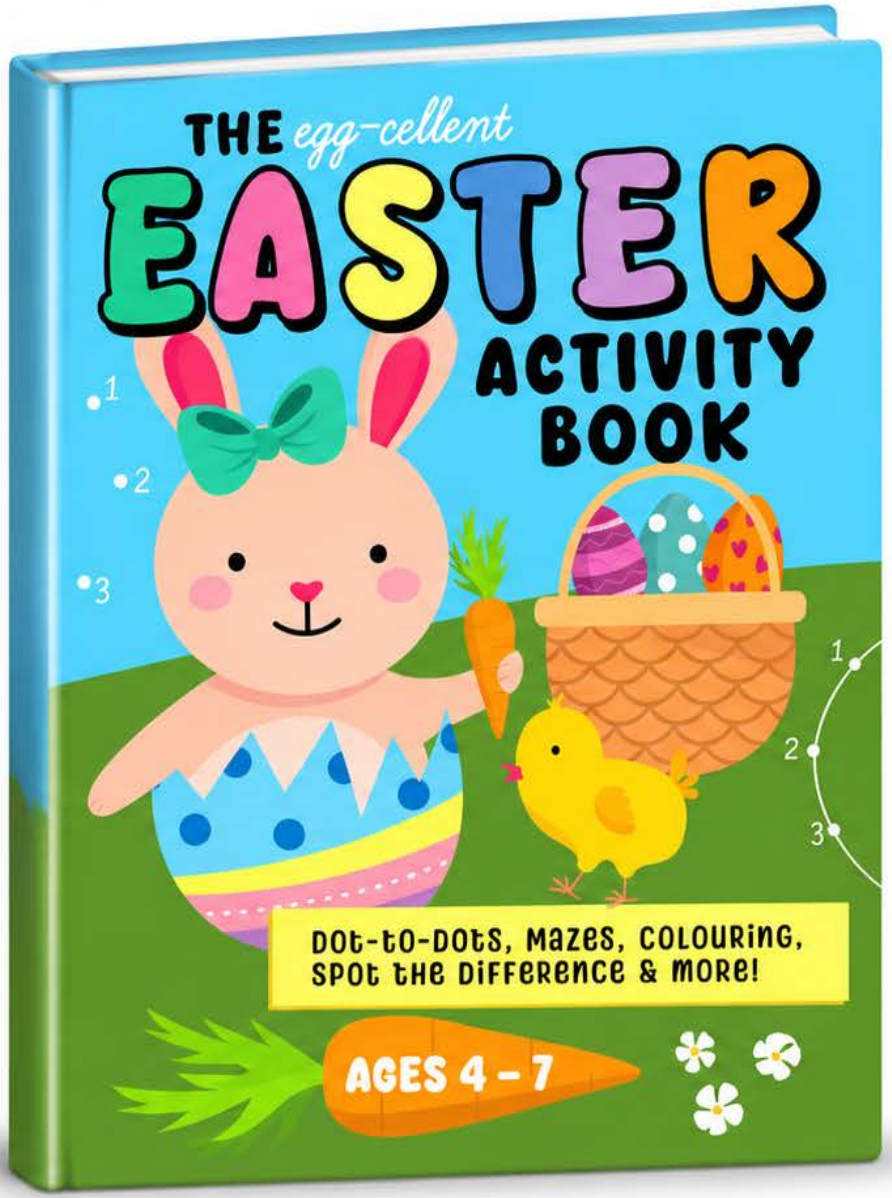
GALAXY Explorers
A CUTE & FUN COSMIC COLOURING JOURNEY AMONG THE STARS!
Mi Mi Kho



Enchanted Tails
A MAGICAL FOREST OF FAIRIES & MYTHICAL FRIENDS
Mi Mi Kho



DOT-TO-DOT
BOOK
DOTS NUMBERED UP TO 15
COLOUR & COUNTING FUN!
62
DOT-TO-DOTS
AGES 3-5



THE egg-cellent
EASTER
ACTIVITY
BOOK
DOT-TO-DOTS, MAZES, COLOURING,
SPOT THE DIFFERENCE & MORE!
AGES 4 - 7